HEADBANGERS HEAVEN:

May 27, 2017 – Gregg Allman, co-founder of the Allman Brothers Band, dies from complications of liver cancer. He was 69. In a famously turbulent career, including the early deaths of original members Duane Allman and Berry Oakley, Allman went on to write many of the band's biggest songs, including "Whipping Post," "Melissa" and "Midnight Rider," which he said was the "song I'm most proud of in my career." Allman was married seven times, and had five children. He was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1995 with the Allman Brothers.
